International publishing house, Distanz and creative house, Triadic present Still Here: Moments In Isolation, a visual diary of more than 100 still-life images and writings by creatives that reflects on the global pandemic and state of confinement. Participants include Tracey Emin, William Kentridge, Shirin Neshat, Elizabeth Peyton, Adam Pendleton, Simon de Pury, Wolfgang Tillmans, and many more. The book comes to life through video and music with augmented reality components that can be activated using the Distanz app, as well as a scented custom bookmark developed by renowned olfactory artist and researcher, Sissel Tolaas.

Triadic will be donating 100% of its proceeds from the book to New York City-based arts organisation, Performa, and Distanz will donate profits to the Berlin Program for Artists.
