Product details

Inspired by Soho House Rome, the Gia coffee table set is striking in both form and function. The solid block style can be configured to create two geometric tables, with both tabletops constructed from an Italian honed Royal Diana marble. The stone is distinguished by a cream background with beige, tan and grey tones which blend together to create a swirled marble pattern; you may even see occasional ivory and quartz veining within the unique surface. Grounded by a book-matched burl base, this table will become a focal point in your interiors scheme.
