Portavini Bar Storage

The curved silhouette of this bar unit is carved from a mix of olive ash burl and Black Marquina marble, with illuminated shelves to showcase a collection of glassware.

Made from mid-toned olive ash burl with a contrasting dark oak stain at the base, the Portavini bar is finished with soft curves inspired by Soho House Rome. While the top is fitted with shelves and glass storage lit by LED lights, the cupboard below is ventilated to safely store a miniature fridge.
