An heirloom piece built from aged oak with a unique live edge and natural knots.

Inspired by the rustic interiors of Soho Farmhouse, the Calne desk is built to last a lifetime. Made in the UK from British Pippy oak, its solid silhouette is characterised by an unfinished edge, alongside natural knots and cracks that give every piece a one-of-a-kind finish. A cable-management grommet can be placed on the left, right or in the centre to keep your workspace in order.
