

Halsted Banker's Floor Lamp

£225 Regular price

£191 Member price

Our take on the traditional library or clerks' reading lamp, Halsted is height adjustable so it can be used next to a desk, beside a chair or in the corner of a room. The brass-finish shade has perforated metal ends so light is dispersed in multiple directions as well as being focussed on a single area. Halsted can be found in the bedrooms and club spaces at Soho House Chicago.
