Product details

Northumberland-based Andrew Crane takes inspiration from the local area in this original acrylic on paper.

Often taking inspiration from his local area of Northumberland, Andrew Crane references the 'badlands' that sit along the border of Scotland and England with this original artwork.

About the artist

Based in Northumberland, Andrew Crane is an abstract painter that uses letters, numbers and shapes to create a "unique visual language". His bold experimentation with materials often includes the use of items he picks up in hardware shops, like cement or plaster.
