Product details

A blend of printmaking graphic marks with the added tension of rapid, freely drawn linear elements.

Known for his use of mixed materials, Kevin Jackson uses etching ink, a single ink roller, masks and a "blunt stick" to create this original abstract artwork. An extension of his 2018 painting 'Turnstile', it is one piece in a sequence made on a variety of hand- and mould-made printing papers.

About the artist

A Chelsea School of Art alumni, Kevin Jackson is based in London, with some of his work displayed in the city's prestigious British Museum. The artist often creates mixed-media abstract pieces as a way to analyse the place humans have in an increasingly virtual world.
