'Evening Light along the Salt Marsh' by Laura Cramer

$3,125 Regular price

$2,656 Member price

Layers of paint are applied, scratched back and reapplied to explore the shapes and organic patterns found by the artist on her evening walk along the salt marshes.

About the artist

The memories of tall grasses, bracken and birdsong from a childhood on the Irish coast leads Laura Cramer to seek out English vineyards and woodland walks from her current home in Bristol. With an aim to "paint freely", she works in layers with a "childlike spontaneity".
